

PHOTOGRAPHING, FILMING AND RECORDING STUDENTS POLICY

If you need help to understand the information in this policy please contact Port Phillip Specialist School on 9646 0855

In addition to the processes outlined below, parents/carers can contact the classroom teacher, Leading Teacher, Assistant Principal, or Principal at any time to withdraw their consent for any future collection, use or disclosure of images of their child. However:

- if the images have already been published and are in the public domain, it may not be possible for consent to be withdrawn.
- There may be occasions when the school will record whole of school or large group events and make those recordings available to the school community via DVD, such as Arts Festival and Music Festival, and if your child participates, they may appear in these recordings which will be available to the whole school community.
- The school can still collect, use and disclose images in circumstances where consent is not required (see below for more information).

Official school photographs

Each year Port Phillip Specialist School will arrange for a professional photographer to take official

Images to be used for regular school operations

From time to time Port Phillip Specialist School may photograph, film or record students to use as part of regular school operations:

- provide parents/carers with information about the event or activity, the organisation involved and when the photography, filming or recording will occur
- seek prior, express parent/carer consent in writing.

School performances, sporting events and other school approved activities

Port Phillip Specialist School endeavours to respect the privacy of all members of our school community and requests that parents/carers, students and invited guests do not photograph, film or record school performances, sporting events and other school-approved activities.

Neither the school nor the Department own or control any images of students taken by parents/carers, students or their invited guests at school activities.

Images to manage student behaviour or fulfil our school's legal obligations

On occasion it may be necessary for school staff to photograph, film or record students when necessary to:

- fulfil legal obligations, including to:
  - take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of reasonably foreseeable harm to students
